Arc Mainnet Launch — Morpho

What's happening

Arc mainnet goes live on June 22.

This is a coordinated global launch across press, paid media, social, and a live event. It is the moment we show the network live in production—with real partners, real usage, and real integrations from day one.

We are intentionally limiting this to a small group of partners who represent what is actually happening on the network.

Your participation is a core part of that story.

This will be a high-visibility moment for both of our companies, and we're excited to have Morpho included in it.

Where you will show up

You will be featured across all core launch surfaces:

- Brand Campaign ("Yes" campaign) — video + short-form content
- Press + announcement — inclusion in main release (quote where applicable)
- Arc website + blog — launch takeover + ecosystem content
- Social (Circle + Arc + ecosystem) — coordinated global posts
- Live launch event (June 22) — on-stage, video, or featured segment
- Post-launch content — deeper case study or feature (optional)

Distribution & Placement

This is the paid + owned distribution layer behind the launch.

We are investing in high-visibility placements to ensure partner brands are seen broadly across institutional and crypto audiences.

Paid Media (Launch Week)

- New York City
 - Street-level placements (bus shelters / financial district)
 - High-traffic commuter hubs (e.g. Penn Station*)
 - Times Square digital placements (exploring*)
- San Francisco
 - Transit + street-level placements
 - Financial + tech corridor coverage

Digital Distribution

- Paid social amplification (X, LinkedIn)
- Targeted institutional + developer audiences
- Video + short-form distribution

Owned Channels

- Arc website takeover (Day 1)
- Launch blog + ecosystem pages
- All Circle social channels
- Arc Social & Community channel activation

How you will appear

- Brand/logo across campaign assets
- Quote integrated into creative (where applicable)
- Visual inclusion across:
 - Campaign (OOH + digital)
 - Website + blog
 - Social content

Preview
